LOCAL HISTORIC DISTRICT STUDY COMMITTEE

PUBLIC FORUM

Amherst Woman's Club
35 Triangle Street
Tuesday, June 15, 2010
7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

The establishment of a Local Historic District is being considered for properties within and selected properties adjacent to the current Dickinson National Historic Register District. Property owners in the area are invited to attend this public forum to learn more about the work of the Local Historic District Study Committee and what a Local Historic District is and does.

At this forum, the Local Historic District Study Committee will:

- Provide informational material describing the historical significance of the Dickinson National Register Historic District and surrounding Main Street neighborhoods.
- Provide informational material describing a Local Historic District and the process Amherst will take to establish such a district.
- Provide a draft set of rules & regulations that might accompany a Local Historic District.
- Distribute a survey asking property owners to comment on the historic character of the neighborhood, and
- Answer questions and facilitate a discussion regarding a Local Historic District.

If you would like more information, please contact Nathaniel Malloy, malloyn@amherstma.gov or the Planning Department at 413-259-3040
