Town Room at Town Hall

Wondering which way to go on zoning?

Do you wish you had a guide for all those letter combinations?

Do you have questions you want answered before you vote?

Come to the Zoning Q & A Forum

We will have an overview of zoning in general and hear about specifics of upcoming articles that will be decided at Fall Special Town Meeting.

(Brownies will be served!)

We welcome written & spoken questions before and during the forum. If you like, you can email questions ahead of time to townmeeting@amherstma.gov.

This is a Town Meeting Coordinating Committee & Planning Board event to inform Town Meeting members and the public about zoning.
