Five three year vacancies remained following the election. Five people received sufficient number of write-in votes to be elected to the five remaining vacancies. Ana Maria Paul received five write-in votes and accepted her election; John Ingram and Patricia O'Brien received four votes each and they accepted election. Two people who received four write-in votes declined. Gabriel Schmitt resigned from Precinct 3 following the election leaving a vacancy available by Section 1.541 which reads, in part "In the event of a vacancy in the full membership of town meeting following the annual town election . . . such vacancy shall be filled by the losing candidate at the same election with the largest number of votes . . . who shall serve only until the next annual town election.” When the two people who received 4 write-in votes declined election, these remaining two vacancies were deemed to be available under Section 1.541. Patricia McPeak-LaRoca who received 3 write-in votes accepted election under 1.541 until the next annual town election. The next highest vote getter received two write-in votes but did not accept election.

Fletcher Clark resigned following the election leaving 3 vacancies to be filled under 1.541. The remaining write-in vote getters received 1 (one) vote each and a tie-breaker election was held on April 24 to fill the remaining three positions. Philip Hart Helzer was one of the winners of the tie-breaker election and he accepted his election in writing. The other two winners of the tie-breaker election did not accept election in writing.
