How do I take part in Town Meeting? Are there rules?
In a 45-minute meeting, these questions and other basic information will be explained before your first evening session begins down the hall at 7:00. Subjects will include: how to sign in; types of warrant articles; how to ask questions; making amendments; types of votes; speaking time limits; and other tips for participation. There will be time for questions and you will receive copies of the TMCC Zoning Primer and The Town Meeting Handbook and Your Amherst Government, published by the Amherst League of Women Voters.
