Cuppa' Joe with Paul at Kelly's Restaurant

Town Manager Paul Bockelman will be at Kelly's Restaurant at 314 College Street in Amherst on Friday, August 25th, from 7:00 – 9:00 a.m. He will be enjoying his usual cup of coffee and healthy breakfast...and he invites you to come in and talk.

Paul will be joined this time at Kelly's Restaurant by Amherst Fire Department Chief, Tim Nelson.

"This is a great opportunity for us to talk to people...no appointment necessary! We are here to answer questions and listen to concerns, compliments, and, yes, complaints," said Bockelman. "But I also would love it if people just stopped by to say hi and let us know how we – and you - are doing!"

The "Cuppa' Joe with Paul" coffees are a regular event and will rotate around the Town. Each time, Paul will be joined by a different Town department head or official. To date, the Town Manager has held coffees at The Black Sheep Bakery and Deli with Police Chief Livingstone, Atkins Market in South Amherst with Assistant Town Manager David Ziomek, Bread and Butter in North Amherst with Planning Director Christine Brestrup and Bruegger's Bagels with Public Works Superintendent Guilford Mooring.
