The notice to abutters shall state where the request or application, including any accompanying documents may be examined or obtained.] Any person filing a permit application or a RFD with the Commission at the same time shall give written notice thereof, by certified mail (return receipt requested) or hand delivered, to all abutters at their mailing addresses shown on the most recent applicable tax list of the assessors, including owners of land directly opposite on any public or private street or way, and abutters to the abutters within 300 feet of the property line of the applicant, including any in another municipality or across a body of water. The notice to abutters shall have enclosed a copy of the permit application or request, or shall state where copies may be examined and obtained by abutters. An affidavit of the person providing such notice, with a copy of the notice mailed or delivered, shall be filed with the Commission. When a person requesting a determination is other than the owner, the request, the notice of the hearing, and the determination itself shall be sent by the Commission to the owner as well as to the person making the request.

The Commission shall conduct a public hearing on any permit application or RFD, with written notice given at the expense of the applicant, five [5 working] business days prior to the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation in the Town of Amherst.

The Commission shall commence the public hearing within [twenty-one] 21 days from receipt of a completed permit application or RFD unless [the applicant extends the twenty-one day time period by a signed written waiver] an extension is authorized in writing by the applicant.

The Commission shall issue its permit or determination in writing within [twenty-one] 21 days of the close of the public hearing thereon unless an extension is authorized in writing by the applicant.

The Commission in an appropriate case may combine its hearing under this bylaw with the hearing conducted under the Wetlands Protection Act (G.L. c. 131 Sec. 40) and Regulations (310 CMR 10.00 et seq.).

The Commission shall have the authority to continue the hearing to a certain date announced at the hearing or to an unspecified date, for reasons stated at the hearing, which may include the anticipated or requested receipt of additional information [offered by] from the applicant or others [information and plans required of the applicant] deemed necessary by the Commission in its discretion, or comments and recommendations of the boards and officials listed in [Section 6.] VI below. [If a date for continuation is not specified, the hearing shall reconvene in twenty-one days after the submission of a specified piece of information or the occurrence of a specified action. The date, time and place of said hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the Town of Amherst five (5) working days prior to the continuation, at the expense of the applicant, and written notice shall be sent to any person who so requests in writing.] If the hearing is postponed to an unspecified date, the applicant is responsible for the expense of advertising the rescheduled hearing, such notice to appear five business days prior to the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation in the Town of Amherst. In addition, the applicant must send written notice of the rescheduled hearing to any person who has requested it.

[Section 6.] VI. Coordination with Other Boards
Any person filing a permit application or RFD with the Commission shall provide a copy thereof at the same time, by certified mail (return receipt requested) or hand delivery, to the [board of selectmen], zoning board [of appeals, board of], planning board, health inspections, town engineer, and building commissioner. A copy shall be provided in the same manner to the Conservation Commission of the adjoining municipality, if the application or RFD pertains to property within 300 feet of that municipality. An affidavit of the person providing notice, with a copy of the notice mailed or delivered, shall be filed with the Commission. The Commission shall not take final action until the boards and officials have had [fourteen] 14 days from receipt of notice to file written comments and recommendations with the Commission, which the Commission shall take into account but which shall not be binding on the Commission. The applicant shall have the right to receive any [such] comments and recommendations, and to respond to them at a hearing [of the Commission], prior to final action.

[Section 7.] VII. [Determinations, ] Permits and Conditions

The Commission shall have the authority, after a public hearing, to determine whether a specific parcel of land contains or does not contain resource areas protected under this bylaw. If the Commission finds that no such resource areas are present, it shall issue a negative determination.

If the Commission, after a public hearing [on the permit application], determines that the activities which are subject to the permit application, or the land and water uses which will result therefrom, are likely to have a significant individual or cumulative [detrimental] effect upon the [wetland] resource area values protected by this bylaw, the Commission, within [twenty-one] 21 days of the close of the hearing, shall issue or deny a permit for the activities requested. If it issues a permit, the Commission shall impose conditions which the Commission deems necessary or desirable to protect those values, and all activities shall be done in accordance with those conditions. The Commission shall take into account the cumulative adverse effects of loss, degradation, isolation, and replication of protected areas throughout the community and the watershed, resulting from past activities, permitted and exempt, and foreseeable future activities.

The Commission is empowered to deny a permit for failure to meet the requirements of this bylaw; for failure to submit necessary information and plans requested by the Commission; for failure to meet the design specifications, performance standards, and other requirements in regulations of the Commission; for failure to avoid or prevent unacceptable significant or cumulative [detrimental] effects upon the [wetland] resource area values protected by this bylaw; and where no conditions are adequate to protect those values. Due consideration shall be given to any demonstrated hardship on the applicant by reason of denial, as presented at the public hearing.

Lands within 200 feet of rivers and within 100 feet of other resource areas, are presumed important to the protection of these resources because activities undertaken in close proximity to resource areas have a high likelihood of adverse impact upon the wetland or other resource, either immediately, as a consequence of construction, or over time, as a consequence of daily operation or existence of the activities. These adverse impacts from construction and use can include, without limitation, erosion, siltation, loss of groundwater recharge, poor water quality, and loss of wildlife habitat. The Commission therefore may require that the applicant maintain a strip of continuous, undisturbed vegetative cover within, or in some instances up to the full extent of the 200-foot or 100-foot buffer area, unless the applicant convinces the Commission that the area or part of it may be disturbed without harm to the values protected by the bylaw.

To prevent wetlands loss, the Commission shall require applicants to avoid wetlands alteration wherever feasible; shall minimize wetlands alteration; and, where alteration is unavoidable, shall require full mitigation. The Commission may authorize or require replication of wetlands on a two-to-one basis as a form of mitigation, but only with adequate security, professional design, and monitoring to assure success, because of the high likelihood of failure of replication.

A permit shall expire three years from the date of issuance. Notwithstanding the above, the Commission [in] at its discretion may issue a permit expiring five years from the date of issuance for recurring or continuous maintenance work, provided that annual notification of time and location of work is given to the Commission prior to such work. Any permit may be renewed once for an additional one year period, provided that a request for a renewal is received in writing by the Commission prior to expiration. Notwithstanding the above, a permit may contain requirements which shall be enforceable for a stated number of years, indefinitely, or until permanent protection is in place, and shall apply to all owners of the land.

For good cause the Commission may revoke or [amend] modify a permit or determination issued under this bylaw after public notice to the holder of the permit or determination, notice to the public and town boards, pursuant to V and VI above, and a public hearing.

The Commission in an appropriate case may combine the permit or [other action on an application] determination issued under this bylaw with the Order of Conditions or [other action issued or taken] Determination of Applicability issued under the Wetlands Protection Act (G.L. c. 131 Sec. 40) and Regulations (310 CMR 10.00 et seq.).

No work proposed in any permit application shall be undertaken until the permit issued by the Commission with respect to such work has been recorded in the registry of deeds or, if the land affected is registered land, in the registry section of the land court for the district wherein the land lies, and until the holder of the permit certifies in writing to the Commission that the permit has been recorded.

[Section 8.] VIII. Regulations

After public notice and public hearing, the Commission shall promulgate rules and regulations to [accomplish] effectuate the purposes of this bylaw effective when voted and filed with the town clerk. [These regulations shall be consistent with the terms of this bylaw.] The Commission may amend the rules and regulations after public notice and public hearing. Failure by the Commission to promulgate such rules and regulations or a legal declaration of their invalidity by a court of law shall not act to suspend or invalidate the effect of this bylaw. Unless otherwise stated in this bylaw or in the rules and regulations promulgated under this bylaw, the definitions, procedures, and performance standards of the Wetlands Protection Act (G.L. c. 131 Sec. 40) and [associated] Regulations (310 CMR 10.00 et seq.) as most recently promulgated [April 1983] shall apply.

[Section 9.] IX. Definitions

The following definitions shall apply in the interpretation and implementation of this bylaw. (For additional definitions, see Regulations II.)

The term “person” shall include any individual, group of individuals, association, partnership, corporation, company, business organization, trust, estate, the Commonwealth or political subdivision thereof to the extent subject to town bylaws, administrative agency, public or quasi-public corporation or body, this municipality, and any other legal entity, its legal representative, agents, or assigns.

K. Incremental activities which have, or may have, a cumulative adverse impact on the resource areas protected by this bylaw.

[Section 10.] X. Security
As part of a permit issued under this bylaw, in addition to any security required by any other municipal or state board, agency, or official, the Commission may require that the performance and observance of the conditions imposed [hereunder] thereunder (including conditions requiring mitigation work) be secured wholly or in part by one or both of the methods described below:

A. By a proper bond or deposit of money or negotiable securities or other undertaking of financial responsibility sufficient in the opinion of the Commission, to be released in whole or in part upon issuance of a Certificate of Compliance for work performed pursuant to the permit.

B. [ In addition or in the alternative, the Commission may accept as security] By accepting a conservation restriction, easement, or other covenant enforceable in a court of law, executed and duly recorded by the owner of record, running with the land to the benefit of this municipality whereby the permit conditions shall be performed and observed before any lot may be conveyed other than by mortgage deed. This method shall be used only with the consent of the applicant.

[Section 11.] XI. Enforcement

No person shall remove, fill, dredge, build upon, degrade, or otherwise alter resource areas protected by this bylaw, or cause, suffer, or allow such activity, or leave in place unauthorized fill, or otherwise fail to restore illegally altered land to its original condition, or fail to comply with a permit or an enforcement order issued pursuant to this bylaw.

The Commission, its agents, officers, and employees shall have authority to enter upon privately owned land for the purpose of performing their duties under this bylaw and may make or cause to be made such examinations, surveys, or sampling as the Commission deems necessary, subject to the constitutions and laws of the United States and the Commonwealth.

The Commission shall have authority to enforce this bylaw, its regulations, and permits issued thereunder by violation notices, administrative orders, and civil and criminal court actions. Any person who violates [any provision] provisions of this bylaw may be ordered to restore the property to its original condition and take other action deemed necessary to remedy such violations, or may be fined, or both.

Each day or portion thereof during which a violation continues shall constitute a separate offense. This fine may be in addition to any levied under the Wetlands Protection Act G. L. c. 131 Sec. 40.

In the alternative to criminal prosecution, the Commission may elect to utilize the non-criminal disposition procedure set forth in G.L. c. 40, Sec. 21 D. The fine for any violation disposed of through this procedure shall be two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each offense. Each day or portion thereof during which a violation continues shall constitute a separate offense and each provision of the bylaw or permit violated shall constitute a separate offense. This fine may be in addition to any levied under the Wetlands Protection Act, G.L. c. 131 Sec. 40. For purposes of non-criminal disposition, the Conservation Director, Assistant Conservation Director, and Police officers shall all be the enforcing persons.] or regulations, permits, or administrative orders issued thereunder, or has failed to obtain the necessary Commission approval, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $300. Each day or portion thereof during which a violation continues, or unauthorized fill or other alteration remains in place, shall constitute a separate offense, and each provision of the bylaw, regulations, permits, or administrative orders violated shall constitute a separate offense.

As an alternative to criminal prosecution in a specific case, the Commission may issue citations under the non-criminal disposition procedure set forth in G.L. c. 40 Sec. 21D, which has been adopted by the Town in Article VI, Section 1(b) of the general bylaws. The enforcing persons shall be the Conservation Director, Wetlands Administrator and Police officers.
XII. Burden of Proof

The applicant for a permit shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the credible evidence that the work proposed in the permit application will not have unacceptable significant or cumulative effect upon the resource area values protected by this bylaw. Failure to provide adequate evidence to the Commission supporting this burden shall be sufficient cause for the Commission to deny a permit or grant a permit with conditions.

XIII. Appeals

A decision of the Commission shall be reviewable in accordance with G.L. c. 249 Sec. 4.

XIV. Relation to the Wetlands Protection Act

This bylaw is adopted under the Home Rule Amendment of the Massachusetts Constitution and the Home Rule statutes, independent of the Wetlands Protection Act (G.L. c. 131 Sec. 40) and [the] Regulations (310 CMR 10.00 et seq.) thereunder.

13.630 If the Building Commissioner finds: 1) that the condition of the building or structure poses a serious and imminent threat to public health and safety, and; 2) that there is no reasonable alternative to the immediate demolition of the building or structure, then the Commissioner may issue an emergency demolition permit to the owner of the building or structure.

13.631 If the Building Commissioner finds: 1) that the condition of the building or structure does not pose a serious and imminent threat to public health and safety, and/or; 2) that there are reasonable alternatives to the immediate demolition of the building or structure which would protect public health and safety, then the Commissioner may refuse to issue an emergency demolition permit to the owner of the building or structure.

13.64 Upon issuing an emergency demolition permit under the provisions of this section, the Building Commissioner shall submit a brief written report to the Commission describing the condition of the building or structure and the basis for his/her decision to issue an emergency demolition permit.

ARTICLE 51. Petition - Resolution - Tibet
Voted that the town adopt the following: RESOLUTION ON TIBET.

WHEREAS, the Chinese People's Republic invaded the independent country of Tibet in 1949-50, and, after the Government of Tibet surrendered to prevent further bloodshed, both parties signed a 17-Point Agreement on Peaceful Measures for the Liberation of Tibet in 1951, in which the Chinese People's Republic guaranteed to maintain the existing political system of Tibet, the status and functions of the Dalai Lama, and freedom of religion, but subsequently destroyed over 6,000 Buddhist monasteries, killed hundreds of religious figures, and attempted to eradicate Buddhist belief and practices, whereupon in 1959 the Government of Tibet repudiated that Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations General Assembly passed Resolution #1353 in 1959, Resolution #1723 in 1961, and Resolution #2079 in 1965 which called for "respect of the Tibetan peoples' distinctive cultural and religious life" and "for the cessation of [Chinese government] practices which deprive the Tibetan people of their fundamental human rights and freedoms, including their right to self-determination;" and the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights in Resolution 1991/10 - "Situation in Tibet" called upon "the Government of the People's Republic of China to fully respect the fundamental rights and freedoms of the Tibetan people;" and

WHEREAS, the Legal Inquiry Committee on Tibet of the International Commission of Jurists (ICJ) in a 1960 report to the Secretary General of the United Nations set forth extensive evidence that "acts of genocide have been committed in Tibet in an attempt to destroy the Tibetans as a religious group," documented extensive violations of the human rights of Tibetans defined by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and found that the 1959 repudiation of the Agreement on Peaceful Measures for the Liberation of Tibet by the Tibetan government was fully justified under international law; and a December 1997 ICJ report recommended, in addition to addressing seven specific recommendations to the People's Republic of China, that the United Nations General Assembly resume debate on the Tibet question based on its 1959, 1961, and 1965 resolutions, and that the United Nations Commission on Human Rights appoint a Special Rapporteur for Tibet; and

WHEREAS, since 1988 the United States Congress has enacted nine resolutions on the status of Tibet, stating most clearly in 1991 Concurrent Resolution # 271 that "Tibet, including those areas incorporated into the Chinese Provinces of Sichuan, Yunnan, Gansu and Qinghai, is an occupied country under the established principles of international law whose true representatives are the Dalai Lama and the Tibetan Government-in-exile as recognized by the Tibetan people;" and Congress has mandated in Section 536(b) of Public Law 103-236 that the United States State Department include a separately titled report on Tibet in its Annual Country Reports on Human Rights; and

WHEREAS, as part of its efforts to absorb Tibet, the Chinese Government is conducting economic development in Tibet contrary to the wishes of the Tibetan people as expressed by the Tibetan Government-in-exile's "Guidelines for International Development Projects in Tibet" which advocates small-scale, decentralized economic development initiatives over which Tibetans have control, and opposes any development which intensifies and promotes the transfer of Chinese citizens into Tibet or which leads to the destruction of Tibet's fragile environment; and

WHEREAS, the Chinese government is currently committing systematic human rights violations in Tibet, including the murder of detainees, torture, disappearances, arbitrary arrest, detention without public trial, denial of free speech and free press, population transfer, coerced sterilization and abortion, suppression of Tibetan Buddhism, and the widespread destruction of Tibetan culture; and

WHEREAS, His Holiness the Dalai Lama, recipient of the 1989 Nobel Peace Prize and political leader of the Tibetan Government-in-exile has repeatedly tried to enter into negotiations without preconditions with the government of the People's Republic of China concerning the status of Tibet and the human rights of Tibetans in Tibet, but the government of the People's Republic of China has thus far refused to even agree to initial discussions; and

WHEREAS, the Tibetan freedom movement has adopted and practices Buddhist non-violent principles even in the face of brutal Chinese government repression, and the Tibetan people have called upon the world community to actively support their struggle for human rights, economic justice, and self-determination;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Amherst Representative Town Meeting

1. supports the conclusion of the United States Congress that Tibet, including those areas incorporated into the Chinese Provinces of Sichuan, Yunnan, Gansu and Qinghai is, under the established principles of international law, an occupied country whose true representatives are the Dalai Lama and the Tibetan Government-in-exile as recognized by the Tibetan people; and

2. supports the 1997 International Committee of Jurists recommendations that the People's Republic of China:

   enter into discussions with the Dalai Lama and the Tibetan Government-in-exile, facilitated by the United Nations Secretary General if necessary, on a solution to the question of Tibet based on the will of the Tibetan people, any solution to include a referendum of the Tibetan people to be held under United Nations supervision; respect the fundamental human rights of the Tibetan people, cooperate with the United Nations mechanisms for the protection of human rights, and allow unrestricted access to Tibet by independent human rights monitors;

   end those practices which threaten to erode the distinct cultural, religious and national identity of the Tibetan people, and in particular, cease policies which result in the movement of Chinese citizens into Tibetan territory; and

3. supports the right of the Tibetan people to control economic development in Tibet; and

4. urges individuals and companies doing business in Tibet to follow the development guidelines of the Tibetan Government-in-exile.

AND, FURTHER, BE IT RESOLVED that the Amherst Town Clerk be directed forthwith upon the dissolution of this town meeting to send a certified copy of this Resolution on Tibet to the following parties:
