WHEREAS, the LGBTQ+ community has and continues to face systemic discrimination across the United States including social stigma, challenges accessing healthcare and other basic social services, and increased rates of violence; and

WHEREAS, we remain vigilant and active against continued oppression and discrimination against the LGBTQ+ community, especially our trans community, and stand against any political efforts to overturn these hard-fought rights; and

WHEREAS, we recognize that queer and trans people of color have been and remain at the forefront of that struggle for those rights; and
